MAYOR AND COUNCIL JOIN MOVEMENT TO GET FLORIDA BANKERS

OFFICIAL INVITATION WILL BE FORWARDED CONVENTION-FRENCH NAMED INSPECTOR OF CONSTRUCTION.

At the semi-monthly stated meeting of the city council, held Monday evening, all members of the body were present except Dr. Klock, who was kept away by professional business. Just before the assembly was called to order, Herr Schmidt, the president, started a "riot" of right respectable proportions because no fire had been built in the dinky little stove which is sometimes pressed into service when the Florida climate goes off on a vacation. One of the fire department's venerable tradiwas smashed when Chief tions French came in and started a blaze, but the wrath of the Teuton was appeased. And it took a French-man to turn the trick.

Nine claims against the city, aggregating $576.20, were approved and ordered paid.

A petition signed by a dozen citivens asked that a street light be placed at Volusia and the railroad. Councilman Stevens, of the street committee, stated that the matter had been taken up with the Public Service company, and it is likely that the light will be placed at or near the point designated. The petition was

A letter from the F. E. C. Railway company, in reply to the board of trade's complaint about the unsanitary condition of toilets at the passen ger station, was submitted. The rail road disclaimed responsibility for the alleged neglect, and the correctness council.

Sanitary Inspector J. Wesley Johnson reported the city in a satisfactory sanitary condition, and that he had collected $180 during the month.

Acting upon the board of trade's re quest, made through Secretary Deacon, the council unanimously passed a resolution embodying an invitation to the Florida Bankers' association to hold its 1916 meeting in Daytona. The first day's session of the 19:5 meeting, which is to be held at Palatka, commences Friday morning. A copy of Monday night's resolution. bearing the signature of council members and the mayor, will be mailed right away, and a telegram urging the association's acceptance of Daytona's invitation will be sent the latter part of the week. There are about 300 members of the F. B. A., and the annual meeting usually lasts three

Following a discussion by Fire Chief. French of the necessity for closer inspection of building construction, as an additional precaution looking to the prevention of disastrons fires, Mr. French was instructed to act until further notice as inspector. It will be his duty to see that the municipal regulations appertaining to the construction of houses are strictly observed.

Chief French was also given discretionary power in the granting of permits to burn trash within the city.
